Mr. Bruce For Auditor.

Mallory, S. C., Mar. 22, —
Editor Herald, and voters of Dillon County:

We the friends of C. G. Bruce appreciate to the fullest the vote of approval given him where-ever he was best known. At his own home precinct, Bethea township where he is known, eighty three per cent stood squarely up to him. In the home precincts of his opponents he polled a splendid vote for which his friends are deeply grateful, and in those precincts where he was an entire stranger it was evidenced by his highest vote.

We, of Bethea township, are practically unanimous for him and expect to roll up a solid vote for him in the second primary.

His home people, his daily associates, those who have had most frequent social, commercial or political intercourse with C. G. Bruce best know his efficiency, integrity and sterling worth, and our faith in his competency encourages us to ask the support of a majority of the voters of Dillon county in his candidacy for the nomination to be Dillon county's first Auditor.

Now Gentlemen, in all fairness to Bethea township we ask your aid in our efforts to nominate our candidate. We have only one. Friends remember this, Centerville was practically solid for the formation of Dillon county, and of its most ardent advocates none were more zealous in their efforts to unite the vote in behalf of a new county than C. G. Bruce, not was his attitude, and ours, actuated by hope of political preferment, but from the sincere conviction that a smaller county was our greatest need.

When it was clear that of the great number of candidates announced none were from our community his neighbors as one voice urged him to make the race for Auditor.

If you would be fair to Bethea township and if in your estimation all else is equal aid us to elect a man who has the confidence of his neighbors that he will, as he has ever proven, be true to his trust and perform every duty creditably to the county, and honorably to himself and friends. HEELER.
